

Types of Financial Aid

Federal: FAFSA

Is for schools all over the nation.
you must apply every year after January 1st
preferable after filing taxes
FAFSA.ed.org (only use this website)
you do not have to pay for either application

I have made available the presentation given to parents by a representative of the Florida Department of Education; you may use it for guidance.

State: FFAA

Includes Bright Futures and other scholarships
It is only good for Universities in the State of Florida
In order to qualify you will need to fill out the FAFSA as well.
Application becomes available starting December 1st.
www.floridastudentfinancialaid.org

All students should complete it, if they are not eligible at the time of application they may become eligible upon graduation. This is why it is important that all students apply.

The application is easy to complete and should not take you more than 10 minutes.

Bright Futures Scholarship Program offers three levels of scholarship awards for students toward any college / university within the state of Florida.

To find out more detailed information about the different awards and criteria, please click on the link above. The attachments are on a printable format and have information found on the official website.